

CONTEMPORARY'S

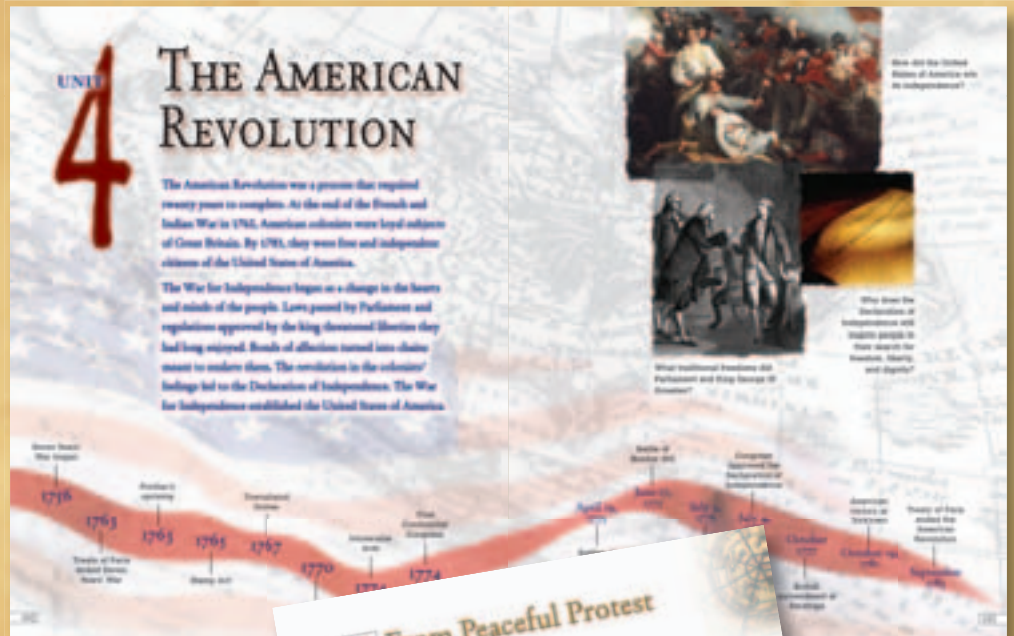

American History

SERIES

Complete High School Level American History for Diverse Learning Needs

Contemporary's American History 1 and 2 is a high school level content series developed at a lower reading level that incorporates the National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS) high school thematic strands. The classroom texts are supported by extensive print and electronic products. These materials are specifically designed to provide support for English Language Learners, special needs students, and collaborative classrooms. This series is also ideal for teachers who provide differentiated instruction.
