American History AND World History

Contemporary's American History 1 and 2 and World History is a dynamic, high interest series that incorporates both reading strategies and the National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS) thematic strands. The classroom texts are supported by extensive print and electronic products. These materials are specifically designed to provide support for English Language Learners, special needs students, and collaborative classrooms. This series is also ideal for teachers who provide differentiated instruction.
