Literature Content Standard 1

Students construct meaning as they comprehend, interpret, analyze and respond to literary works.

Rationale

The “meaning” of a piece of work is not a rigid, unchanging interpretation by an expert. Meanings depend upon readers, upon the times, and upon the interaction of reader and literary work. Authors provide clues, judgments, and insights about life that influence a reader’s attitude. Students actively engage with text to build their own understanding. Thus, students understand what they read as it relates to what they know.

Benchmarks

Students will:

1. make predictions and connections between new literary works and previous information/experiences and explore questions about the impact of literary elements.
