STATE GOAL 14: Understand political systems, with an emphasis on the United States.
Why This Goal Is Important: The existence and advancement of a free society depend on the knowledge, skills and understanding of its citizenry. Through the study of various forms and levels of government and the documents and institutions of the United States, students will develop the skills and knowledge that they need to be contributing citizens, now and in the future.
A. Understand and explain basic principles of the United States government.
14.A.4 Analyze how local, state and national governments serve the purposes for which they were created.	Student Edition: 569, 637, 795, 917-918, 943-945 Connecting to the United States 568 Section Review 569 #4-#5, 637 #4 Assessment 572 #14, 573 #21 Primary Source 919 Teacher Wraparound Edition: C 569; CT 917; RS 637, 943; WS 568

STATE GOAL 15: Understand economic systems, with an emphasis on the United States.
Why This Goal Is Important: People's lives are directly affected by the economies of cities, states, nations and the world. All people engage in economic activity: buying, selling, trading, producing and consuming. By understanding economic systems—and how economics blends with other social sciences, students will be able to make more informed choices, prudently use resources and function as effective participants in the economies around them.
A. Understand how different economic systems operate in the exchange, production, distribution and consumption of goods and services.
15.A.4a Explain how national economies vary in the extent that government and private markets help allocate goods, services and resources.	Student Edition: 440-441, 549-550, 620-621, 655-657, 910-913, 968-969, 972-977, 1012-1013 Primary Source 550, 911, 968 Reading Check 550, 969, 974 Section Review 621 #3 Teacher Wraparound Edition: A 656, 1013; C 621; CT 550; DI 1013; RS 550, 969, 1013; SP 911
15.A.4b Describe Gross Domestic Product (GDP).	Student Edition: Gross National Income is found in the Mini Almanac R3. Gross Domestic Product (GDP) is a criterion in ranking Most Livable Countries, found in the Mini Almanac R4.
15.A.4c Analyze the impact of inflation on an individual and the economy as a whole.	Student Edition: 458, 791-792, 794, 975 Teacher Wraparound Edition: A 975
15.A.4d Explain the effects of unemployment on the economy.	Student Edition: 792-793, 795 Turning Point 793 Section Review 795 #7
B. Understand that scarcity necessitates choices by consumers.
15.B.4a Explain the costs and benefits of making consumer purchases through differing means (e.g., credit, cash).	See Glencoe's Economics: Today and Tomorrow © 2008 to meet this standard.

STATE GOAL 16: Understand events, trends, individuals and movements shaping the history of Illinois, the United States and other nations.
Why This Goal Is Important: George Santayana said "those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it." In a broader sense, students who can examine and analyze the events of the past have a powerful tool for understanding the events of today and the future. They develop an understanding of how people, nations, actions and interactions have led to today's realities. In the process, they can better define their own roles as participating citizens.

STATE GOAL 17: Understand world geography and the effects of geography on society, with an emphasis on the United States.
Why This Goal Is Important: The need for geographic literacy has never been greater or more obvious than in today's tightly interrelated world. Students must understand the world's physical features, how they blend with social systems and how they affect economies, politics and human interaction. Isolated geographic facts are not enough. To grasp geography and its effect on individuals and societies, students must know the broad concepts of spatial patterns, mapping, population and physical systems (land, air, water). The combination of geographic facts and broad concepts provides a deeper understanding of geography and its effects on individuals and societies.

STATE GOAL 18: Understand social systems, with an emphasis on the United States.

Why This Goal Is Important: A study of social systems has two important aspects that help people understand their roles as individuals and members of society. The first aspect is culture consisting of the language, literature, arts and traditions of various groups of people. Students should understand common characteristics of different cultures and explain how cultural contributions shape societies over time. The second aspect is the interaction among individuals, groups and institutions. Students should know how and why groups and institutions are formed, what roles they play in society, and how individuals and groups interact with and influence institutions.

A. Compare characteristics of culture as reflected in language, literature, the arts, traditions and institutions.

18.A.4 Analyze the influence of cultural factors including customs, traditions, language, media, art and architecture in developing pluralistic societies.

Student Edition:

STATE GOAL 14: Understand political systems, with an emphasis on the United States.
Why This Goal Is Important: The existence and advancement of a free society depend on the knowledge, skills and understanding of its citizenry. Through the study of various forms and levels of government and the documents and institutions of the United States, students will develop the skills and knowledge that they need to be contributing citizens, now and in the future.
A. Understand and explain basic principles of the United States government.
14.A.5 Analyze ways in which federalism protects individual rights and promotes the common good and how at times has made it possible for states to protect and deny rights for certain groups.	Student Edition: 569, 637, 671 Section Review 637 #4 Teacher Wraparound Edition: RS 637

STATE GOAL 15: Understand economic systems, with an emphasis on the United States.
Why This Goal Is Important: People's lives are directly affected by the economies of cities, states, nations and the world. All people engage in economic activity: buying, selling, trading, producing and consuming. By understanding economic systems—and how economics blends with other social sciences, students will be able to make more informed choices, prudently use resources and function as effective participants in the economies around them.
A. Understand how different economic systems operate in the exchange, production, distribution and consumption of goods and services.

STATE GOAL 16: Understand events, trends, individuals and movements shaping the history of Illinois, the United States and other nations.
Why This Goal Is Important: George Santayana said "those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it." In a broader sense, students who can examine and analyze the events of the past have a powerful tool for understanding the events of today and the future. They develop an understanding of how people, nations, actions and interactions have led to today's realities. In the process, they can better define their own roles as participating citizens.

STATE GOAL 17: Understand world geography and the effects of geography on society, with an emphasis on the United States.
Why This Goal Is Important: The need for geographic literacy has never been greater or more obvious than in today's tightly interrelated world. Students must understand the world's physical features, how they blend with social systems and how they affect economies, politics and human interaction. Isolated geographic facts are not enough. To grasp geography and its effect on individuals and societies, students must know the broad concepts of spatial patterns, mapping, population and physical systems (land, air, water). The combination of geographic facts and broad concepts provides a deeper understanding of geography and its effects on individuals and societies.

STATE GOAL 18: Understand social systems, with an emphasis on the United States.
Why This Goal Is Important: A study of social systems has two important aspects that help people understand their roles as individuals and members of society. The first aspect is culture consisting of the language, literature, arts and traditions of various groups of people. Students should understand common characteristics of different cultures and explain how cultural contributions shape societies over time. The second aspect is the interaction among individuals, groups and institutions. Students should know how and why groups and institutions are formed, what roles they play in society, and how individuals and groups interact with and influence institutions.
A. Compare characteristics of culture as reflected in language, literature, the arts, traditions and institutions.
