

Learning Inventory

Directions: To help you clarify what you have learned in this course, use the space provided to answer these questions.

Before I took this course, I thought it would be about the following:

The knowledge I most remember from this course is:

I have applied the information I learned in this course to my life in the following way:

If I had not taken this course, I would not have known:

By taking this course, I learned: