

Worksheet

Chapter 3 Money Management Strategy

You will now be able to view the McGraw-Hill annual report. Follow your teacher's directions to either print out the activity and close this Web site, or click on the Acrobat Reader icon now and go back and forth between Web pages.

Step 1 Open the McGraw-Hill 2000 annual report document.

Step 2 Scroll through the document to become familiar with its contents, and then identify where you can find the following items:

1. Harold McGraw III's signature?
2. An "at-a-glance" overview of McGraw-Hill companies?
3. An in-depth discussion of factors affecting year 2000 revenue and expenses?
4. An in-depth discussion of S&P's financial results?
5. A consolidated statement of net income?
6. An explanation of how earnings-per-share is calculated?
7. The number of individuals employed by McGraw-Hill in 1999?