

Students can use the Personal Fitness Plan and the Stretching Program Plan to design their personal fitness program. They can use the Personal Fitness Log and Weight Training Log to record their progress in executing their personal fitness program. You can print out the logs as often as students need them.