

ACTIVITY WORKSHEETSafety-on-Wheels Fair

Form two groups, one focusing on motor vehicle safety, the other on recreational vehicle safety. Students may use the form below to sign up for one or the other group and for specific tasks within the group. Use the checklist that follows to help plan your safety fair.

PROJECT TASK SIGN-IN SHEET
GROUP 1: MOTOR VEHICLE SAFETY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Publicity and promotion: _____ ■ Research: _____ ■ Writing: _____ ■ Art: _____ ■ Multimedia development team: _____ ■ Other (describe task): _____ _____ _____ 	GROUP 2: RECREATIONAL VEHICLE SAFETY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Publicity and Promotion: _____ ■ Research: _____ ■ Writing: _____ ■ Art: _____ ■ Other (describe task): _____ _____ _____ _____ _____

ACTIVITY WORKSHEETSafety-on-Wheels Fair*CHECKLIST

- ✓ Date and time at which the safety fair is to take place:

- ✓ Possible locations:

- ✓ Materials to be presented or distributed at clinic (check one or more of the following):

Printed copies of the on-line booklets

Multimedia show on the National Advanced Driving Simulator

Original pamphlets summarizing the information

Manufacturers' brochures showing safety helmets, knee pads, and other safety equipment

- ✓ Manner in which the event will be advertised (for example, flyers, posters, word of mouth, telephone committee):

- ✓ Safety experts from your school or the community who might be asked to speak:

Prepare a survey for after the fair to gather information on what classmates learned and what they enjoyed.