

The Yellow Rose of Texas

American Cowboy Song

B♭

1. There's a Yel-low Rose in Tex - as I'm go - ing home to see. I
2. Where the Ri - o Grande is flow - ing, and stars are shin - ing bright, we
3. Now I'm go - ing back to find her, my heart is full of woe. We'll miss that lit - tle la - dy, I'm sure she miss - es me. She walked a - long the riv - er one qui - et sum - mer night. I sing the songs to - geth - er we sang so long a - go. I'll cried so when I left her, it al - most broke my heart; and know that she re - mem - bers our part - ing long a - go. I pick the ban - jo gai - ly, just like I did be - fore. The ver - y soon we'll meet a - gain and nev - er, nev - er part.

F7

B♭

F7

prom - ised to re - turn to her and nev - er let her go.
Yel - low Rose of Tex - as shall be mine for - ev - er - more.

Refrain B♭

She's the sweet - est lit - tle la - dy that Tex - as ev - er knew. Her eyes are bright as dia - monds; they spar - kle like the dew. You may find a lot of pret - ty girls wher - ev - er you may be. But the

F7

B♭

F7 B♭ F7 B♭

Yel - low Rose of Tex - as is the on - ly one for me.