

CHAPTER 31 ARTHROPODSReview the Key Terms

appendage	chelicerae (kuh LIH sur ee)
book lungs	mandible (MAN duh bul)
compound eyes	pedipalps (PED uh palps)
larva	pheromone (FAYR uh mohn)
molting	spinnerets (sih nuh RETS)
nymph (NIHMF)	spiracles (SPEER uh kulz)
pupa	tracheal tube (TRAY kee ul)
simple eye

Many of the Chapter 31 key terms are listed in the box. Review the definitions of these terms. Then fill in each blank in the sentences below with the correct term.

1. A(n) _____ is an odor given off by animals.
2. The wormlike stage of an insect is the _____ .
3. A(n) _____ is a structure that grows out of an animal's body.
4. Arachnids use _____ for holding food and for sensing.
5. The biting appendages of arachnids are called _____ .
6. Spiders use _____ to spin silk into thread.
7. Spiders and their relatives use _____ to breathe.
8. A(n) _____ hatches from an egg during metamorphosis.
9. Many arthropods see with a pair of large _____ .
10. The mouthpart an arthropod uses to hold, chew, suck, or bite food is called a(n) _____ .