

Chapter 4

Use with Section 1

REINFORCEMENT*● Energy Resources

Choose from the following terms. Complete the sentences below. Some of the terms may not be used.

acid rain	nonrenewable
electrical	oceans
energy	pollution
fossil fuels	nuclear
lignite	swamps

1. Resources that cannot be replaced by natural processes in less than 100 years are _____.
2. When gases released by burning coal and oil mix with water in the form of precipitation, _____ forms.
3. The coal we use today formed in _____ millions of years ago.
4. Energy resources formed from the decaying remains of ancient plants and animals are called _____.
5. The main sources of energy for homes and factories in the United States are _____ power plants.
6. _____ is a type of soft, brown coal.
7. The ability to change things is called _____.
8. The introduction of harmful chemicals, waste products, and other substances into our environment is called _____.

Name three types of fossil fuels:

9. _____                      10. _____                      11. _____