

Chapter 16

Text Pages 458–461

STUDY GUIDE

● Climate Types

Use the terms in the box to complete the sentences.

climatologists
ferns adaptations

vegetation semiarid continental wet hibernation estivation

behavioral

- Some mammals undergo a period of inactivity in winter called _____.
- Changes in activity that help organisms survive in a certain environment are _____ adaptations.
- Dry climates are divided into _____ and arid.
- Where there is heavy rainfall, some typical plants are moss-draped trees and _____.
- People who study climates are called _____.
- _____ is an inactive state through which lungfish survive periods of intense heat.
- Most _____ climates are found between latitudes 30° north and 30° south.
- Characteristics that organisms develop over a long time that help them survive are called _____.
- One of the six climate groups in the Köppen Climate Classification System is the _____ climate.
- The type of _____ in a region depends on the climate.

Complete the following item on the lines provided.

- List the six climate groups in the Köppen Climate Classification System.
