

Chapter 26

Use with Text Pages 716–721

STUDY GUIDE

● Development After Birth

Match the description in the first column with the term in the second column by writing the correct letter in each blank.

- | | |
|--|---------------------|
| _____ 1. surgery performed when a baby cannot be born through the vagina | a. FSH |
| _____ 2. muscular contractions of the uterus that begin childbirth | b. adolescence |
| _____ 3. expelled by contractions after the baby is delivered | c. neonatal period |
| _____ 4. refers to the first four weeks after birth | d. cesarean section |
| _____ 5. hormone that helps produce reproductive cells | e. childhood |
| _____ 6. the scar that forms where the umbilical cord was attached to the baby | f. labor |
| _____ 7. early contractions often cause it to break and release its fluid | g. infancy |
| _____ 8. begins from ages 12 to 14 | h. navel |
| _____ 9. period of development from 1 to 12 years | i. amniotic sac |
| _____ 10. period from 4 weeks to 1 year | j. placenta |

Number these developmental events (1–7) in the order that they normally occur.

- _____ Child sits up when propped.
- _____ Child can walk without help.
- _____ Child says simple words such as “mama.”
- _____ Many can read a limited number of words.
- _____ Child can control bladder and bowel.
- _____ Child can smile.
- _____ Child can speak in simple sentences.

