

Problem 16. Using ink, develop the warped surface shown at the right. First, use corners A and B at the bottom of the page and the equally spaced dots to develop the surface as shown in the illustration. Then use corners A and B at the top of the page and their respective dots to develop the same warped surface upside-down.

