Avant de surfer

You are in the center of Paris. Your friend needs a ride to either Orly or Roissy-Charles-de-Gaulle airport (he or she can leave from either one), and you volunteered to drive him or her. But you aren't sure of the most efficient way to go. Which airport is closest to Paris? What's the traffic like on the highways to each of them? What's the fastest way out of Paris to get on the autoroute? Before you click on the link, take a guess about which of the two airports—Roissy or Orly—is closer to Paris. Write down what you guessed.

Do the following activities.

1. You have now had an opportunity to see the roads leading from Paris to its two major airports. Prepare a traffic report, as though you were a reporter on TV, telling where traffic is flowing smoothly and where it's tied up on the way to each of the two airports, Roissy and Orly. Don't forget to mention any accidents or road construction work you noticed. Be sure to include advice about the best route to take when leaving the city, based on what the real-time traffic map has shown.
