

Name _____ Date _____

Assessment

Unit 3
Lesson 1

Reading Comprehension

California is host to many immigrants. San Jose is one of the largest Vietnamese American communities in the United States. Many of these immigrants came here to escape the war in Vietnam. Every winter, the Vietnamese celebrate Tet, the Vietnamese New Year, at the county fairgrounds in San Jose. They watch colorful dragons dance and eat delicious moon cakes.

Fill in the circle before the correct answer.

- The Vietnamese immigrants came to California to _____.

<input type="radio"/> A escape war in Vietnam	<input type="radio"/> C celebrate Tet
<input type="radio"/> B speak their language	<input type="radio"/> D eat moon cakes
- _____ is one of the largest Vietnamese American communities in the United States.

<input type="radio"/> A Vietnam	<input type="radio"/> C California
<input type="radio"/> B San Jose	<input type="radio"/> D Tet
- Write a summary about the customs and traditions the Vietnamese brought with them to the United States.

Answer Key
Grade 3 p. 48
Reading Comprehension

1. A

2. B

3. The Vietnamese celebrate Tet in the San Jose, California community. Every winter, they have a festival of colorful dragons and eat moon cakes. They brought dancing and food as part of their culture.